

Sex, Marriage and Divorce from a Christian perspective.

Okay, so there are two sections - one with the nice lady by the West Pier and one with the Vicar on his doorstep.

SECTION 1: AT THE WEST PIER WITH THE NICE LADY

Have you been a Christian a long time?

How did her ideas on sex change when she became a Christian?

How is her situation different now?

Does she follow these ideas because she is scared of God?

Did she become a Christian because she wanted to get married?

What is distinctive about Christian marriage?

Are there roles for women and men in Christianity?

These are controversial views...

How does this relate back to Jesus?

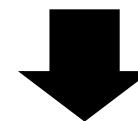

Is there a set type of man or woman?

How does a Christian marriage ceremony reflect the main ideas?

This topic is a minefield: any final words to a teenage audience?

Who are 'The Cure'?

Any of your own reflections?

This belongs to:

Sex, Marriage and Divorce from a Christian perspective

SECTION 2: ON THE DOORSTEP WITH THE VICAR

Three views on divorce: what are they?

1

2

3

What is reconciliation?

How does the vicar relate any of this back to Jesus?

According to the Vicar, why should anyone bother with becoming a Christian?

Any of your own reflections?

